My home called Osawatomie

Do you know what it feels like to live in a place that had slavery and then was freed by a man named John Brown? Osawatomie was founded in 1854, a year before Paola was founded. It feels good to live in a small town that just makes you feel relaxed. In Osawatomie you can hear trains running, streams flowing, the rain drops falling, and fans cheering at sporting games. This story is going to be about my city, my home, Osawatomie.

Osawatomie, KS is named after two rivers called the Osage and the Pottawatomie rivers. In Osawatomie you can see the rivers flowing, John Brown park, sporting fields, people working, and the schools. There are two myths about Osawatomie, the first myth is that Osawatomie could never get directly hit by a tornado because we are in between two rivers. The second myth is that we could have got Kansas University, but we built the state hospital instead. The state hospital was established in 1863 and opened in 1866. Osawatomie had two NFL players from Osawatomie, Lynn Dickey and Derrick Jensen. We also had two presidents Teddy Roosevelt in 1910 and Barack Obama came in 2011 to Osawatomie. When you come to Osawatomie you can smell fresh air, harvest, and you can smell the mowed grass.

Recently when you come to Osawatomie there is a giant mural that says welcome to Osawatomie with John Brown on it.

And there you have it, I hope you learned something about my home Osawatomie. I've lived here all my life and it is a really good town. Osawatomie feels like home because there are sports here, I go to an amazing school, and I think this is an awesome community. Osawatomie is a city before it was a state, also Osawatomie is known for its history here. Osawatomie is a good place to visit . This is my city and my home called Osawatomie.
