Osawatomie, My Home

Have you ever wondered what makes your city your home? Well, you're about to see an example of Osawatomie, Kansas. Osawatomie is a very historical town, and, The Civil War was sort of started, (or completely started) in Osawatomie! This city is definitely the home for me!

Osawatomie, my favorite city, even today! In our town, we have nice people, loud construction, and beautiful nature! Our town is considered small, so small that it isn't on most maps! But, this is a cozy town, which makes it nice. can see friends, smell nature, hear construction, taste beautiful grilled food, and feel beautiful sidewalks! If there is a problem in Osawatomie, the police are there! If someone is hurt, ambulances are there! If there is a fire, the fire department is there! The construction crew is ready to expand the town! They all report to the City Manager, who reports to our Mayor! In our town of Osawatomie, you are always safe. In our town, we have an amazing school that teaches us all we need to know about Osawatomie, amongst other things.

I have family in Osawatomie, Mom, who helps with every PIE festival, Asa, who cleans the town 1 piece at a time (It didn't cost him a dime!) Me, who helps with Asa, Dad, who works at the school, and Jack, who kind of serves as a mechanic.

Our town is very historical, we had a battle here, floods, John brown, and the beautiful Marais des cygnes river. This town has been through a lot, but we're still here!

In our town, sorry, our home, we have an amazing atmosphere, beautiful buildings, and rich history! I love our town of Osawatomie, and this, this perfect city, is definitely our home.
